

SHOCK

Immobilization means that the victim may be so overwhelmed by the critical incident that he or she is totally confused and disorganized.

Denial means that the victim is so overwhelmed that he or she questions that the incident really happened.

